

2019

COAST ROAD DAWN CHORUS

Saturday 21st September, 9:30am – 4pm.

Barrytown Hall, 6 Cargills Road, Barrytown.

A day of sharing and learning. How to trap predators and protect our native birds.

Workshops

Choose from:

Predator traps - different types demonstrated
Identifying bird calls for beginners
How to set up a project on the trap.nz website

And from:

DOC150 traps - a comprehensive how-to
Bird song recording and post-processing
Using a trail cam for predator monitoring

Hear From

Predator Free Punakaiki
West Coast Penguin Trust
Westland Petrel Conservation Trust
Conservation Volunteers NZ
Coast Road Dawn Chorus
Predator Free Truman Track
Motukiekie Shakedown
Caffyn Trappin'

Potluck Lunch

Please bring a plate of food to share.

FREE EVENT. Register and choose your workshops at: dawnchorus.westcoast.org.nz

Keynote Speaker

Kristel van Houte

Marine ecologist, Project Manager of the Karioi Project and Co-Director of A Rocha NZ.

Field Trip

A guided tour of the Barrytown Predator Free School trap-line.

And More

Lightning talks
Q & A with a panel of experts
The surprising behaviours of predators
Activity corner for children
(children must be accompanied by a parent or caregiver.)

dawnchorus@westcoast.org
ph. 028 415 6994